Sexuality Education & Training

Presented by: Bonnie Greene

Bonnie Greene is a consultant who has provided sexuality training to persons with developmental disabilities for the past 29 years. She has training in nursing, rehabilitation, counselling and teaching sexuality. She is currently the vice-chair of the Ottawa Regional Sexuality Network, an interagency group devoted to supporting professionals involved in sexuality education.

In this workshop participants will explore why sexuality education is essential to persons with developmental disabilities and addresses current issues and concerns facing individuals and their caregivers. Participants will have the opportunity to practice several strategies for teaching some of the aspects of sexuality education. This workshop is aimed at front line staff, educational assistants, parents, caregivers, professionals and mental health workers.
